Severe Weather All Along the Atlantic Coast-Bel w Zero in Virginia.

Boston, Mais., February 5 .- The prevailing storm is very severe in the bay and along the coast, probably more severe than either of the great ga'es of last month. In Boston severe cold and a twenty-nine-mile gale has prevailed since Wednesday morning, accompanied by a light snowfall, but outside all these elements of discomfort lave been intensified. The threemasted sch ober, Mary A. Killen of Thomaston, Me, with $40,000 worth of sugar from hiavana, took the gale early Wednesday evening in the mid-dle of the bay and went ashore on Third Cliff beach, Scitzate, at 11:30 o'clock p.m. Capt K llen tells a hortible story of the suffering of himself were soon at the mercy of the ele ments. The sta was running mountain high and continually swept over as it fell. The upper rigging was a mass of ice, making it impossible for the crew to work the ship. The water also froze to the clothing of the crew and prevented them from moving about with effectiveness. The men suffered severely from cold, and several were freebit en. We firally lost control of the vessel, and knew that we were drifting on to a lee shore, but were rendered poweriess to help ourselves. Suddenly we heard the breaters to leeward and almost at the same instant the vessel struck. Each sea lifted her and she commenced thumping upon the bottom. It seemed as though she would pound her bottom out. All this time the heavy seas were breaking over her, three tening to rend her asunder. As soon as we could we fired the signal gun, and in a miraculously short time the answering beamon of the life-saving crew gladdened our Capt. Stanley's life-raving crew, which had already saved fifty-seven lives since New Year's, dragged their mortar apparatus with great difficulty to the scene of the disaster, and the line was several times ineffectually hurled loward the craft, but each time failed of reaching the mark. Af er several attempts the line passed ove: the vessel into the seething billows beyond. The seamen seized the cord and quickly drew it aboard, until the cable had been hauled in and securely fastened to the mainmast. Then the real work of rescning the sailors commenced. The vessel stranded at 11:40 p.m., and at 1:30 a.m. the crew, numbering eight in all, had been taken off. The re cued seamen were nearly dead from cold and exposure, and as soon as they were landed immediate means were taken to resuscitate them. By most strendous efforts they were made comto table, and have now partially recovered from the effects of the terrible experience. They lose their all. Grave fars are entertained for the safety of numerous other vessels known to have been out in the same

The Cold sonp at New York, New York, February 5 .- The thermometer this morning stood at 6° low zero. The present cold snap is the coldest of the season, and the suffering among the poor is very great. The trains on the elevated railroads are snow, it is almost impossible for horse cars to make headway. Twenty persons who walked across the Brooklyn bridge vesterday had some parts of their bodies frozen. Charitable persons bought large numbers of tickets for rides in the Brooklyn bridge cars and had the pol ce give them to poorlyclad persons who attempted to walk

Four steamers arrived at this port yesterday, but no sailing vessels have been reported. The steamships were covered with ice, and their captains reported having passed a very cold night off the coast. Large quantities of ice drifted at out the harbor yesterday. A dispatch from Island City announced that the mouth of the sound was full of ice and that no water could be seen from that point. No round steamers arrived yesterday, as, owing to the storm, none of these vessels sailed from either end Wednerday night. The pa t month has been a busy one for the crews at the life-saving stations along the coast. The crew at the Third Cliff beach station has perhaps the best record, having saved sixty-five lives since the great storm of January 9th.

The cold in this city is still intense, and many sufferers from its effects applied at the hospitals for trea ment. A frezen boiler in the kitchen of a Wall street restaurant exploded this morning and the escaping steam seriously scalded Annie Roberts of Brooklyn, employe.

Intensily Cold af Winchester, WINCHESTER, VA, February 5.-Intense cold weather prevailed in this locality until midday, when a slight rise in temperature took place. Ther-

Coldest of the Winter at Baltimore, tain high and continually swept over the vessel, rendering it extremely hezer ardous for us to work her, and making our position dangerous. To add to day, though the sun shines brightly, the almosphere is very severe. At 7 o'clock this morning the indicated 2° below zero, a mercury indicated 2° below zero, a care occurrence in this latitude, and at 9 o'cl ck was 1° above. At 1 o'clock this afternoon it stood 9° above. Trains are still delayed and naviga on again suspended, there having been no ac-rivals for departures from this port t -day.

Trains Delayed at Wilmington WILMISGTON, DEL, February 5 .- The weather last night interfered greatly with the running of reilroad trains. The New York and Norfelk rottlebound express was eight hours late, John Boyle O'Reitly on the Cabinet, and way freight traffic has been largely suspended. Snow block a les are rerorted on the Queen Anne and the Kent and the Delaware and the Virginia railroad, Forty Degrees Below Zero at Watertown, N. Y. WATERTOWN, N. Y., February 5.— The mercury is 40° below zero here this morning.

The Coldest of the Season at Wash-jugton,

WASHINGTON, February 5. - The morning was the coldest of the season. The thermometer at the Signal office registered 2° below zero at 7 The minimum temperature was 2.30° below.

The exceedingly cold weather has caused much suffering among the poor, many of whom are without fael or pro-visions. The New York train due on the Baltimore and Potomse road a 5:35 pm, was delayed beyond Phila-delphia and reached here six bours There are two trains of stock on the Washington and Ohio road which are snowed up. All trains from the South this morning were reported in-definitely late. The Chicago express, due here at 6 o'clock this morning, 'arrived here at 7:25. The snow is now drifting and the probability is the arrival of trains will be irregular during the day.

The Coldest Weather Ever Experienced at Staunton STAUNTON, VA., February 5 .- This is the coldest weather ever experienced in this latitude. At 6:30 o'clock morning the thermometer registered 25° below.

In ensely Cold at Saratoga, SARATOGA, N. Y., February 5.—An intense cold wave swept over this section during the night, accompanied by a northwest wind. The thermometer delayed, and, owing to the registered 36° below zero this morning

The Heaviest Snow Ever Known at Newbern, Tenn. [CORRESPONDENCE OF THE APPEAL.] NEWBERN, TENN., February 4.—The thrown. snow of the 2d instant is the deepest ever known in this section. It measures thirty inches in depth and in many places has drifted to the depth of eight or ten feet. The roads everywhere are blockaded and travel is impossible.

Yesterday was "put in" by the railroad hands in clearing the track so that the trains which were blockaded near here could get in. There were two passenger trains, one due here at 9 o'clock p.m. the 2d, and one due at 3 o'cl ck a.m. the 3d instant, from Memphis, that were snow-bound just west of town, and extra force was employed yesterdsy evening to clear the track and about 5 o'clock in the evening they succeeded in coming into town by attaching several engines to each train, and the west-bound passenger train came in late yesterday evening, being some fifteen hours behind

The schools are completely snowed under and everything is at a standstill.

ON THE VERGE OF STARVATION. Great Suffering Among Canadian Fishermen.

CHICAGO, ILL., February 5 .- A Montreal special says: "The most distre sing intelligence continues to be re-ceived from Gaspe regarding the starving condition of the fishermen and their families, who have been thrown out of employment by the suspension of Robin & Co. To make matters worse, the other great fishing firm of Lebout llier Bros. has also suspended, so that some 5000 souls are literally on the verge of starvation. The dominic n government has been petitioned to come to the amistance of there people, and is in a quandary, as there seems to be no hope of the firms resuming business. A communication has been received by the mayor here from the rector of New Carlisle and of Paspebise asking for aid, and intimating that the system pursued by the bankreign and life and property will be en-dangered. Two-thirds of the people of the county of Gaspe are affected by the failures."

VEHNON HARCOURT'S ADDRESS. London, February 5 .- Sir William Vernon Ha court, the new Chancellor turn to Parl ament, states that he will do all in his power to co operate with the new government in the work of solving the Irish question in a way supremary of the crown.

Comments of the Dublia Fress, DUB. IN, February 5 .- The Freeman's Journal, commenting on Mr. Gladstope's election address to his constituents, says the Prime Minister explicitly recognizes that no settlement of he land or education question in Ireland is possible without Ir sh selfgovernment. The Express (Conservative) says it is nanseating to be confronted with such talk as Mr. Gladstone's address conf Ireland, when the Radical Ministers this country.

Boston Mass, February 5 - Speaking of Gladstone's Cabinet, John Boyle O'R-il y says that he warmly approves the appointment of J ha Morley a Chief Secretary for Ireland, but the Cabinet, as a whole, he says, is prac-nelly a rehash of former Liberal Cabinet. As far as the relations of the Irish people and Mr. Gladatone alegancerned, Mr. O'Reidy expresses the opinion that the Irish look upon Gladstone with great hope as the man who has received perhaps the ast needed lesson in regard to the importance f the Irish question. "On the whole," said the editor of the Pilot "I don't think to a the new Cabinet is from which Ireland can expect generous trealment. World.

I am a native of England, and while I was in that country I contracted a terrible blood poison, and for two years was under treatment as an out-door patient at Nottingham Hospital, England, but was not cured. I suffered the most agonising pains; namy bones, and was covered with sores all over my bedy and limbs. I had vertigo and deafness, with partial loss or sight, severe pains in my head and eyes, etc., which nearly ran me cray. I lost all hope in that country, and sailed for America, and was treated at licosevel in this city, as well as by a prominent physician in New York having no connection with the hospitals.

Isaw the advertisement of Swift's Speciac, and I determined to give it a trial as a last resort. I had given up all hope of being cured, as I had gone through the hands of the best medical men in Nottingham and New York. I took six bottles of S. S. S., and I can say with great joy that they have cured me entirely. I am as sound and well as I ever was in my life.

New York City, June 12, 1835.

BLOOD

Is the life, and he is wise who remembers it. But in March of lastyear (1884), I contracted blood poison, and being in Savannah, Ga., at the time, I went into the hospital there for vreatment. I suffered very much from rheumatism at the same time. I did not get well under the treatment there, nor was I cured by any of the usual means. I have now taken seven bott es of Swift's Specific and am sound and well. I throws the posson out through beils on the skin.
